

What's New in 2017?

The Byrne Match . . . Better than ever!

For 2017, the Jack & Dorothy Byrne Foundation has once again shown its incredible support for The Prouty and Norris Cotton Cancer Center. This year's match will not only match every donation beyond your minimum, it will extend to May 15!

Here's how it works:

Everything that's in your headquarters (beyond your minimum) at 11:59pm on Monday, May 15, will be matched, dollar for dollar! (For Ultimate Riders, it's not your minimum, it's $500.) Whether it was a $25 donation or a $1,000 donation, the total amount in your headquarters minus your minimum will be matched. So make sure you sign up early and fundraise often!

New Optional Prouty Hybrid Metric Century - Cycling is moving more and more off-road, so here's your chance to do a part-gravel, 64-mile (metric century) Prouty ride. Tour some of the best less traveled roads in the area...not for the inexperienced rider, limited on road support. New Day-One Ultimate Century Ride – In honor of the 10th Ultimate ride, we're "Moo-ving" Day One to start in Hanover (instead of Manchester, NH) and the ride will now be almost exclusively through Vermont (watch for those cows!) Link to the maps plus descriptions of our new Hybrid (a day-two option for Ultimates) and the Ultimate new day-one Vermont ride.

We are pleased to bring back the Prouty 35 mile route! With construction completed, we're delighted to bring back the Prouty 35 – here's what it looks like: here
