Friday Rower Parking:

Richmond Middle School (12-4pm): THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO PARKING FOR TRAILERS AT THE RICHMOND MIDDLE SCHOOL on either Friday or Saturday! Rowing participants WITHOUT trailers interested in completing their onsite check-in and bib pick-up will find "short term" parking at the Richmond Middle School (63 Lyme Road, Hanover, NH 03755), from 12-4pm.

Dewey Field Parking Lot (4:30-8pm):

Rowing participants WITHOUT trailers who are interested in completing their bib pick-up and/or attending the Friday night pasta dinner from 5-8pm, should park in the Dewey Parking Lot and take the shuttle bus to the Prouty venue.

Dartmouth College Boathouse (Trailer Parking)

Starting on Friday at 5:00pm and throughout Saturday the Friends of Dartmouth Rowing Boathouse opens for participants with trailers. Trailers with boats may be left overnight; however, The Prouty assumes no responsibility for your boat. The parking area will be periodically patrolled by College security officers and town police. Once the trailer has been parked, please plan to join the evening pasta dinner by parking in Dewey Lot and taking the shuttle to the venue.

Saturday Rower Parking and Venue Shuttle Service:

Dartmouth College Boathouse:

Throughout Saturday, rowing participants with or without boat trailers, will find parking available at the Friends of Dartmouth Rowing Boathouse. Additionally, once your day on the water is complete, please plan to join the remaining Prouty participants for lunch with live entertainment at the Prouty venue site. Shuttle service is available to and from the Prouty venue site, which originates from the boathouse.
